General Announcements

Students, CHECK THE LOST & FOUND IF YOU ARE MISSING SOMETHING!!!! All items will be donated tomorrow.

JPII Theatre presents Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream. Come join us Saturday at 2:30 pm, 7:00 pm, and Sunday at 2:30 pm. This week only! Tickets are $10 at the door, and advance tickets are $5. Advance tickets can be purchased at www.jpil.booktix.com.

The Spanish Club is collecting the following items for the Friends of the Children: gallon Ziploc bags, hairbrushes, new or gently used warm weather clothes, coloring books, toiletries, small toys that do not require batteries, and school supplies but please no Playdough. All items collected will benefit poor or orphaned children in Guatemala. Please bring your donations to Mrs. Christl's classroom. The project ends with packing days next Thursday and Friday!

Tomorrow is our Feast Day Celebration. Please bring the following items in tomorrow morning if you have not done so already: freshman- bottled water, sophomores- bag of chips, juniors- package of cookies, and seniors- hot dog buns, condiments and paper products. Also, bring a lawn chair or a blanket for the grass, and all students/faculty may wear jeans and a Feast day shirt OR jeans and a uniform shirt. Students participating in the obstacle course, please bring your PE clothes. We are looking forward to celebrating all the blessings that we have in our community.

Also in regards to Feast Day, drop off your Polish Food Cook-off entries tomorrow morning in room 115 with Mrs. Schaefer. Make sure you label your dish with your name, grade level, name and category of dish. A distinguished panel of judges eagerly awaits your entries! May the best cook win!

There will be no 4th block senior privilege tomorrow afternoon.

Announcements from Guidance:

Seniors - make sure to request all your transcripts in Naviance, and turn in all scholarship and acceptance letters.

Activity Announcements:
