

2.19.19

General Announcements:

Prom 2019 needs you to be OUT OF UNIFORM on Wednesday! That's tomorrow. Bring $3 cash or $3 of the coins you find in your car. Make sure to follow OUT OF UNIFORM guidelines in the handbook.

Attention Dr. Muenstermann's 2nd Period Theology class: Because of a special event tomorrow, your test has been moved to Friday. This applies to 2nd Period only.

Seniors! Don't forget that you will receive your Foreign Language Honor Cords at next week's Foreign Language Honor Society Induction on Wednesday, February 27, in the Multipurpose Room after school.

Congratulations to Nathanael Pichette for winning the Visual Arts of Alabama award! His etching entitled "The End of Summer" will be displayed and he will be honored at a celebration at the Huntsville Museum of Art on March 10, and Congratulations to Sabrina Frazier! Her artwork, Beauty in the Fractures and Fragile, has also been chosen for an honor and will be part of the Youth Art Month exhibit, which will be held from March 10 until April 29 at the Huntsville Museum of Art.

Gracias, merci, danke, gratias (Gra-tia-us)! The Foreign Language Department would like to thank everyone who participated in this year's bake sale by baking, selling, buying or donating money. Thanks to all of you we were able to meet our goal of $600 for the Little Sisters of the Poor in Mobile, Alabama.

Reminder all those participating in the solo/ensemble festival tomorrow, please meet in the chapel directly after school. Also, many of the choir students will be auditioning at the Solo/Ensemble festival tomorrow morning. Please wish blessings and luck to them today.

Due to the excitement we have had for The Sleep in Heavenly Peace bedding drive, we have decided to extend it through the month of February to greater help this deserving organization! Please bring in NEW twin size sheets, pillows, and blankets for the children in our community who have to sleep on the floor. You can drop off donations in the library or front office.
