

Liz Hurley Ribbon Run Artwork Unveiling

WAFF Channel 48 New Anchor, Liz Hurley came to JPII this morning to unveil the winning artwork submitted by Mrs. Payge Semmes, JPII art teacher. When talking about the inspiration behind the original artwork, Mrs. Semmes spoke about how to give someone hope who is dealing with this illness. "It's all about Love. How we share our Love with one another. How we take care of one another when a friend, family member or loved one is sick." When researching a subject for the painting, Payge said the pink magnolia keep coming up. She said she chose the pink magnolia because it represents femininity, friendship and love.

