Social Media Parent Agreement

As a parent/guardian, I recognize that the use of the Internet comes with a corresponding responsibility to use it wisely, both for myself and my child. I also recognize that sending my child to a Catholic school is a privilege that comes with a corresponding duty to act in a Christian way toward others. I therefore pledge to refrain from using the internet in any way that might disparage the school's administration, staff or coaches. If I have an issue with school personnel, I will take my concerns directly to the school's administration and not publicly broadcast vile, hateful or disparaging remarks about the administration, staff or coaches. Publicly broadcasting any such remarks is an indication of my intent to withdraw my child or children from the school and the Headmaster has my permission to act accordingly.
